Assoc.Prof. Seensiri Sangajit
President of Rajamangala University of Technology Lanna

Your Excellency,

I am very pleased to inform you that as a result of a six-month in-depth discussion and survey by my office, a total of 30 universities and the Academia Sinica of Taiwan would like to support a talent development project to meet the professionals demands of "Thailand 4.0" by focusing on 10 targeted industries.

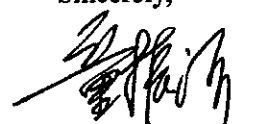

Under this talent development project, Thai students and professionals are welcome to enter these 702 departments and graduate institutes in Taiwan that are related to the 10 targeted Thai industries.

In addition, Ministry of Education, Ministry of Science and Technology, and "Taiwan ICDF" three Taiwanese government scholarship programs provide around 20-25 full scholarships for Thai students. Our office has decided to preferentially issue the scholarships to the Thai students who choose to study in the departments or graduate institutes which are in the field of Thailand 4.0 Project.

Through this project, we look forward to exploring strategies that enable Thailand and Taiwan to deepen and broaden bilateral cooperation in "Thailand 4.0," while building a wave of "Talent 4.0" to enhance the overall competitiveness of Thai industries.

Enclosed for your reference is a copy of a list of 702 departments and graduate institutes available for the development of Thai talents related to the 10 targeted industries under "Thailand 4.0." If you have inquiries, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

Chen-yuan Tung

Taiwan's Education and Scholarships for Cultivating Talents for the 10 Targeted Industries in the "Thailand 4.0" Scheme

Compiled by Taipei Economic & Cultural Office in Thailand

Published on 12 November, 2018

Taiwan's Education and Scholarships for Cultivating Talents for the 10 Targeted Industries in the "Thailand 4.0" Scheme

Thailand 4.0 is a new model being proposed by the Thai government as they look towards having a value-based economy. There are 10 targeted industries in Thailand 4.0 scheme, including Next-Generation Automotive, Smart Electronics, Affluent, Medical and Wellness Tourism, Agriculture and Biotechnology, Food for the Future, Robotics, Medical Hub, Aviation and Logistics, Biofuels and Biochemicals, and Digital Economy.

The compiled list of departments and graduate institutes from Academia Sinica and 30 Taiwanese universities below is about Taiwan's education for cultivating Thai talents for the 10 targeted industries in the "Thailand 4.0" scheme.

In order to support Thai students to pursue their advanced studies in Taiwan, there are approximately 1,200 scholarships (including university scholarships and government scholarships) qualified for Thai students to apply. Not only the Academia Sinica and 30 Taiwanese prestigious universities provide their own scholarships (please check the Admission offices links below), but also Taiwanese government supports three scholarships, including "The Ministry of Education (MOE) Taiwan Scholarship Program", "The Ministry of Science and Technology (MOST) Taiwan Scholarship Program", and "The TaiwanICDF International Higher Education Scholarship Program."

In particular, the "MOE", "MOST", and "TaiwanICDF" three Taiwanese government scholarship programs provide around 20-25 full scholarships for Thai students to pursue their undergraduate and graduate degrees in Taiwan, including tuitions, airfares, and monthly living allowance between NT$12,000 to NT$30,000.

Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Thailand (TECO) has decided to preferentially grant the scholarships to the Thai students who choose to study in the departments or institutes with curriculums for the 10 targeted industries of Thailand 4.0 scheme.

For both education and scholarships, you can check out the "STUDY IN TAIWAN" website: <https://www.studyintaiwan.org>. Simply use the search engine to fine out all the Taiwanese universities, degree programs, language courses, short-term programs, government scholarships, and university scholarships. For "The TaiwanICDF International Higher Education Scholarship Program", you can check website: <http://www.icdf.org.tw/ct.asp?xItem=12505&CtNode=30316&mp=2>.
