About Us

National Pingtung University (NPTU) is located in Pingtung City, which is seated in the southernmost of Taiwan. With a population of nearly 800,000, Pingtung county is a business and industrial center, and it is also one of Taiwan's major zones of agricultural production, yielding rice and other crops delighted throughout the island.

NPTU is established in August 1, 2014, merging from National Pingtung University of Education (NPUE) and National Pingtung Institute of Commerce (NPIC). NPTU inherits the rich teaching and research potentials in the fields of technological and vocational education, comprehensive higher education, and normal education. NPTU commits itself to building up a university of excellence in teaching and specialization in research, which responds to the trends in modern higher education. NPTU has 6 Colleges, including College of Education, College of Science, College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, College of Management, College of Computer Science and Innovative and International College. With inherited excellent capacities from NPUE and NPIC, NPTU is regarded as a great university for developing professional talents to meet the demands from industries and country.

In addition, the educational philosophy of NPTU strongly emphasizes on the balanced development of humanistic qualities, professional knowledge, and practical experiences for our students. To accomplish the goal, diverse leading-edge professional courses and holistic education are designed to cultivate students' professional skills and humanistic qualities. Faculties are endowed with resources for research from government and private sectors. Meanwhile, students are encouraged to participate in the academia-industry cooperative projects and earn practical experiences before they graduate. NPTU is convinced that students will be able to develop great characters of professionalism, humanistic qualities, creativities, responsibilities, and empathy for others. NPTU integrates the diversification and confluence in preparing elite professionals who strive for excellence in their drive toward globalization.

Approved by the letter of Ministry of Education: No: 1030184880

Announced on Dec. 6th, 2017 after the 3rd admission committee meeting for the first semester.

Announced on Sept. 19th, 2018 after the 1st admission committee meeting for the first semester.

Approved by the letter of Ministry of Education: No: 1070190250

Article 1

These regulations are formulated in accordance with the provisions of Article 6 of the “International Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan” and “NPTU International Student Admission Regulations”.

Article 2

An individual of foreign nationality, who has never held nationality status from the Republic of China (“R.O.C.”) and who does not possess an overseas Chinese student status at the time of their application, is qualified to apply for admission under this regulation.

① An individual of foreign nationality, pursuant to the following requirements and who has resided overseas continuously for no less than 6 years is also qualified to apply for admission under this regulation.

An individual who also is a national of ② the R.O.C. , but does not hold or has had a household registration in Taiwan. An individual who also was a national of the R.O.C. but has no R.O.C. nationality at the time of their application shall have an annulled status regarding their R.O.C. nationality for no less than 8 years after an annulment of R.O.C. nationality by the Ministry of the Interior. Regarding individuals mentioned in

③ the preceding 2 subparagraphs, they must not have studied in Taiwan as an overseas Chinese student nor received placement permission during the same year of the application by the University Entrance Committee for Overseas Chinese Students.

According to the Education Cooperation Framework Agreement, a foreign national who was selected by a foreign government, organization, or school, and does not hold a household registration from the time of their birth is not subject to the limitations as prescribed in the preceding 2 paragraphs after receiving the approval from the authorized educational government agencies. If the calculated calendar year is not one complete calendar year, their stay in Taiwan should not exceed 120 days within the calculated calendar year period.

The six year calculation period as prescribed in Paragraph 2 shall be calculated from the starting date of the semester (February 1st or August 1st) as the designated due date for the time of study.

The term “overseas” as prescribed in Paragraph 2 is limited to countries or regions other than Mainland China, Hong Kong and Macau; the term “reside overseas continuously” means that an individual may stay in Taiwan for no more than a total of 120 days per calendar year.

The only exceptions to this method of calculation are for those who fulfill one of the following requirements with written supported proof:

① Attended overseas youth training courses organized by the Overseas Compatriot Affairs Council or technique training classes accredited by the Ministry of Education (the “Ministry”);

② Attended a Mandarin Chinese language

Article 3

An applicant of foreign nationality, concurrently holding a permanent residence status in Hong Kong or Macao, having no history of a household registration record in Taiwan and, at the time of application, has resided in Hong Kong, Macao, or another foreign country for no less than 6 years is qualified to apply for admission under these regulations.

The term “reside overseas continuously” mentioned in the preceding paragraph means an individual may stay in Taiwan for no more than a total of 120 days per calendar year. However, such a term may be exempt, if any of the conditions center at a university/college of which foreign student recruitment is approved by the Ministry, and to which the total length of stay is less than 2 years;

③ Exchange students, whose length of total exchange is less than 2 years; or

④ An Internship in Taiwan which has been approved by an authorized central government agency, to which the total length of stay is less than 2 years.

An individual, who has both foreign and R.O.C. nationalities and has applied for an annulment of their R.O.C. nationality before February 1, 2011, the effective date of this amendment, will then be qualified to apply for admission as an international student under the amendment effective before February 1, 2011 and will not be subject to the limitation as prescribed in Paragraph 2.

prescribed in Subparagraphs 1 through 4, Paragraph 5 of the previous Article applies and is supported with written proof, and the said domestic length of stay shall be excluded from the overseas length of residency.

An applicant being a former citizen of Mainland China and holds a foreign nationality, having no history of household registration record in Taiwan, and at the time of application, has resided overseas continuously for no less than 6 years is qualified to apply for admission under these regulations.

The term “reside overseas continuously” means an individual may stay in Taiwan for no more than a total of 120 days per calendar year.

However, such a term may be exempted if any of the conditions prescribed in Subparagraphs 1 through 4, of Paragraph 5 of the previous Article, applies and is supported with written proof, and the said domestic length of stay shall be excluded from the overseas length of residency.

Article 4

International students applying for schools in Taiwan in accordance with the two previous articles shall be limited to one application only. Upon completion of the course of study, at a school in Taiwan, to which an international student has applied, the student's admission to another

National Pingtung University Affidavit for International Student Application

Appendix5

I hereby authorize National Pingtung University to verify the information provided below. If any deception, concealment, violation or forgery is found, I have no objection to being disqualified from admission to NPTU and my student status will be revoked, and no proof of attendance or diploma will be issued.

Signature: _____

I hereby certify the information provided below:

- ① Nationality and residence (Please choose one of the above that best describe the current status)
 - I am neither an overseas compatriot student nor an R.O.C. national as defined in Article 2 of the Nationality Act*.
 - I am a foreign national and have stayed overseas for at least 6 consecutive years. I am also a R.O.C. national upon registration, but never have had the household registration in Taiwan.
 - I am a foreign national and have stayed overseas for at least 6 consecutive years. I used to be a national of the Republic of China and already gave up the R.O.C. citizenship. It has been more than 8 years since the date on which the renouncement was approved by the Ministry of the Interior.
- ② I have never studied in Taiwan as an overseas compatriot student nor been placed by the University Entrance Committee for Overseas Chinese Student through distribution or individual application at the current academic year.
- ③ The highest degree submitted by me (a senior high school diploma for admission to a university, a university diploma for admission to a master's program, and a master's degree for admission to a PhD program) is valid and has been awarded legally in the country where I graduated. The diploma submitted by me is comparable to that awarded by accredited institutions in Taiwan.
- ④ All the documents provided by me (including the diploma, passport and other relevant documents, original or photocopy) are valid. Should any document be found to be invalid or false, my admission to ISU will be revoked, and no proof of attendance will be issued.
- ⑤ Once admitted, I must present the original of the diploma and transcripts officially authenticated by the R.O.C. overseas office or representative office in the country where the school is located at the time of registration. If I fail to submit required documents or any of the documents submitted does not meet the provisions of the Regulations Regarding the Assessment and Recognition of Foreign Academic Credentials for Institutions of Higher Education of the Ministry of Education, R.O.C., ISU reserves the right to disqualify me from being admitted to the University.

- ⑥ I have never enrolled in any senior high schools in Taiwan as an international student (except for educational institutions for foreign residents or bilingual programs offered by senior high schools). I have never been expelled from any institution in Taiwan due to a failing score on personal conduct/academic performance or a sentence resulting from a criminal judgment.
- ⑦ I am not a national of Hong Kong, Macau or the People's Republic of China.

*Note:

According to Article 2 of the Nationality Act, a person who meets one of the following criteria acquires the nationality of the Republic of China:

- ① A person whose father or mother was, at the time of his/her birth, a citizen of the Republic of China.
- ② A person born after the death of his/her father or mother who was, at the time of his/her birth, a citizen of the Republic of China.
- ③ A person born in the territory of the Republic of China and whose parents are both unknown or are stateless.
- ④ A naturalized person.

The provisions specified in Subparagraphs (1) and (2) of the preceding paragraph shall apply to minors on the date of the promulgation of the amendment to the Act.

Note: In the event of any disputes or misunderstanding as to the interpretation of the language or terms of this form, the Chinese language version shall prevail.
