1. Introduction

With a view to promoting the human resource development and capacity building of developing countries and to enhancing international exchanges in the field of education, culture, communication, science and technology and the friendship among peoples of the world, the Government of the People's Republic of China and UNESCO will co-sponsor a total number of seventy-five (75) fellowships in various fields of study at undergraduate and postgraduate levels during the academic year 2026-2027. Among these fellowships, twenty-seven (27) vacancies will be open for new recruitment to candidates from 135 developing Member States in Africa, Asia-Pacific, Latin America, Europe and Arab region.

Tenable at a selected number of Chinese universities, these fellowships are intended for students and researchers who plan to pursue degree study at the postgraduate level, or undertake individual research with periodic guidance from the assigned supervisors in China. A candidate may apply for either a one-year Visiting Scholar Programme (as General or Senior scholar), or a Master's or Doctoral degree programme with the duration of study ranging from 2 to 5 years. Subject to the availability of study programmes at the selected universities, the study programmes will be taught in English or Chinese. Candidates applying for the Chinese-taught programmes should have acquired a certain level of Chinese proficiency before undertaking research or studying in their fields of interest.

Fellowship recipients will be enrolled full-time in the academic programmes to which they are admitted in the Chinese universities within the framework of the Programme. Extension or repeated award of fellowships is not permitted under the same UNESCO fellowships programme.

Given the high priority that UNESCO places on Gender Equality, Africa and SIDS, female candidates and candidates from Africa and SIDS, especially those from the least developed countries are strongly encouraged to apply.

5. Submission of Applications by Candidates

Interested applicants should contact the National Commissions for UNESCO of their home countries to enquire about the submission and preselection procedures at the national level, and submit their applications to the National Commissions no later than 23 January 2026, in order to allow sufficient time for the pre-selection process at the national level. Only candidates officially endorsed by the National Commission for UNESCO of an Invited Member States will be considered by UNESCO.

Candidates must submit their online applications (Type A Application, Agency No.: 00001) on the Chinese Government Scholarship Information System (<https://campuschina.org/>) with the following supporting documents properly uploaded:

- (i) Application Form for Chinese Government Scholarship in English, completed and submitted in the system (the form can be downloaded and printed after completing the online application).
- (ii) A scanned copy of Passport information page: A clear scanned copy of the candidate's ordinary passport with validity later than 1 September 2027<sup>1</sup> must be submitted.
- (iii) Notarized photocopies of highest diploma: Prospective diploma winners must submit official proof of student status issued by their current educational institution.
- (iv) Academic transcripts: Transcripts in languages other than Chinese or English must be attached with notarized Chinese or English translation.
- (v) Language qualification certificates: Candidates should provide relevant language proficiency certificates in accordance with the universities' requirements. Candidates who apply for English-taught programmes should submit a certificate of international English proficiency tests such as IELTS or TOEFL. In the cases where a candidate cannot provide an international English certificate, it is mandatory for him/her to submit a UNESCO Certificate of Language Knowledge (Annex IV), duly signed and stamped by a certified language institution or language tutor to prove the candidate has sufficient language knowledge to attend the courses of study.

Those who apply for Chinese-taught programmes must submit valid HSK score reports in line with the language requirements of their applied study programme.

- (vi) Pre-admission documents from a designated Chinese university: All candidates must provide a pre-admission document issued by the universities

<sup>1</sup> If the validation period of the currently held passport is less than 12 months (calculated from the expected start date of study), candidates should renew the passport and use the new passport to complete the application. Upon the approval of UNESCO, Candidates who fail to obtain a passport in time may submit valid documentation that carries the information of full name, gender, nationality and date of birth.

they are applying to. Pre-admission documents may include pre-admission notice issued by the international students' admission department, or an invitation letter from the university or a professor, among others.
